

Permissions declaration

Book title: Learn R: As a Language (2nd edition)

Author/editor names: Pedro J. Aphalo

I declare that:

- I have read and understood this form
- I have read and understood the permissions guide
- I have entered all information regarding necessary permissions in the table below
- I have included all permissions correspondence at the end of this document or have otherwise submitted it to my Editorial contact
- I understand that the Publisher reserves the right to remove any material for which satisfactory evidence of permission (or proof that it is not required) has not been provided
- I understand that errors in the preparation of my manuscript (or chapter) could cause delays during the production process and any costs associated with this could be charged to me.

Signature Pedro Jose Aphalo

Date 16 October 2023

Please start obtaining permission for all necessary items as soon as you include it in your manuscript. All permissions ~~must be cleared~~ by the time the manuscript is ready for delivery and it is ~~your~~ responsibility to obtain any permissions needed.

Please check one of the boxes below. Option A is the most popular choice. If you check Option

B, please proceed to the next pages and list the figures for which you need approval. The last page must include proof that you have received permission to use the figure(s) along with the corresponding figure number(s).

☒ Option A. I confirm that all artwork is original and belongs to me.

☐ Option B. I need to receive approval to use figures from the rightful copyright owner(s).

Permissions Record Please provide the complete original source line information in the columns below for all third-party material, including that which does not require permission. This information must also be included as a full source line citation after material appearing within your chapter(s).
Manuscript reference (e.g. Fig 1.1, Quote 2)	Permission secured? If no, state reason (e.g. creative commons)	Citation for original content (duplicated from the manuscript)	Link to source and/or rights information (if online)

Evidence

Please cite proof here: emails, word docs, any proof from copyright owners granting permission to use.

☒ I declare that all artwork is owned and created by me.

Date 16 October 2023